

CHRISTIANS IN ACCOUNTABILITY

Who are we, What is accountability, Why do we meet?

I myself am convinced, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, complete in knowledge and competent to instruct one another.
(NIV) Romans 15:14

We are a group of men who seek to be more than just the “casual” Christian, the pew sitter, the man our wives or girlfriends take to church, the man who knows John 3:16 because of football games. We are men like the disciples; all are sinners, ashamed of the things done in the past. We have run from spiritual conflicts and at times embraced the world’s values. We are men, single and divorced, old and young, married or separated; we are different races and sizes. BUT, we are all actively seeking God, asking for more of Him and less of us. We support one another in good and bad, joy or sadness, good choices or bad. We are soldiers for the Lord striving to be the spiritual leaders of our home, no matter who is living in it.

WE ARE BROTHERS!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

The word accountability is almost always used in a negative context. “We will hold them accountable, someone must be held accountable, etc...” However, accountability is something we WANT, not something that we are forcing on each other. We have seen that having a Christian brother to walk with, talk with and pray with, is essential to a productive Christian life.

Accountability is asking another man to help you stay safe in an area of weakness (lying, alcohol, pornography, lust, etc..). This works when you have a relationship to build on, because that man wants you to succeed and should tell you the good, bad and down right ugly things he may see. Then you receive it!!!!

It's not a group to point the finger at your failure, but one to support you and to help you achieve accountability, God's way.

We meet every month on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday at 6:30 PM in room A6. One person does lead the group, but as the scripture at the top of the page reads, each man has the ability to teach. You are not expected to “pour out your heart” but you are expected to be real with us and God. The ultimate goal is that God will bring you into a friendship with another man, where you BOTH can talk to each other and work together to be spiritual warriors. Watching out for each other and being a threat to Satan. Hope to see you.....
